From the President's Desk

For those of you who could not be with us at our last chapter meeting, we had a good turnout and we shared in a good picnic themed potluck with lots of good food. Let's see, there were soft drinks, pretzels and chips, hotdogs with accompanying buns and condiments, Kentucky fried chicken, potato salad, baked beans, bean salad, cookies, and great cup cakes. If I have missed anything, I apologize, because my memory isn't what it used to be. In any event we shared some good food and had a good time together.

Please remember that for the months of June, July, and August, we will not be meeting as usual in our regular hotel meeting room. Instead we will be getting together without having a planned meeting agenda on a social basis only. We will then be meeting in September back in our regular meeting room. Please watch your emails and our "Members Only" bulletin board for times and places of our summer social gatherings. A number of our sisters have already left or are about to leave for their summer travels and we wish them safe travels so that they will be able to return and be with us again in the fall. They will be missed.

Have a great summer everyone

The Obedient Italian Wife!

There was an Italian immigrant man who had worked all his life, had saved all of his money, and was a real "miser" when it came to his money. Just before he died, he said to his Italian wife...

"When I die, I want you to take all my money and put it in the casket with me. I want to take my money to the afterlife with me."

And so he got his wife to promise him, with all of her heart, that when he died, she would put all of the money into the casket with him.

Well, he died. He was stretched out in the casket, his wife was sitting there - dressed in black, (what else), and her best friend was sitting next to her. When they finished the ceremony, and just before the undertaker got ready to close the casket, the wife said, "Wait just a moment!"

She had a small metal box with her; she came over with the box and put it in the casket. Then the undertaker locked the casket down and they rolled it away.

So her friend said, "Girl, I know you were not fool enough to put all that money in there with your husband."

The loyal wife replied,

"Listen, I'm an Italian Catholic & I cannot go back on my word. I promised him that I was going to put that money in the casket with him."

You mean to tell me you put that money in the casket with him!?!?!?

"I sure did," said the wife. "I got it all together, put it into my account, and I wrote him a cheque..... If he can cash it, then he can spend it." AMEN!

Giving money and power to government is like giving whiskey and car keys to teenage boys.

During his fourth week of basic training, my grandson was able to make a brief phone call to me. He said he was attending church on base every week, which I was pleased to hear.

"Everybody goes to church here," he added. "It's the only place we don't get yelled at." Joyce Nelson (Humor In Uniform – Reader's Digest)

"What's the quickest way from here to Philadelphia?"

"Are you walking or driving?"

"I'm Driving."

"That's definitely the quickest way."

"When your dad is mad and asks you, 'Do I look stupid?' don't answer him." - Heather, age 16
